Substance; and a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of Alprazolam (commonly known as Xanax), a Schedule IV Controlled Substance; within one thousand (1,000) feet of a real property comprising the Vista Hermosa Public Housing Project (hereinafter "Vista Hermosa"), a housing facility owned by a public housing authority, within one thousand (1,000) feet of a real property comprising a public or private elementary, vocational, or secondary school, and within one thousand (1,000) feet of a playground, all within the Municipality of San Juan, Puerto Rico. All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, §§ 841(a)(1), 846, and 860.

2. MAXIMUM PENALTIES

Criminal Case No.16-177 (PAD):

The penalty for the offense charged in COUNT TWO of the Indictment is a term of imprisonment of not less than five (5) years, but not more than life imprisonment; and a term of supervised release of not more than three (3) years. The Court may also impose a fine not to exceed $250,000.00, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(c)(1)(A)(i).

Criminal Case No. 16-591 (GAG):

The penalty for the offense charged in COUNT ONE of the Indictment is a term of imprisonment which shall not be less than ten (10) years and up to two (2) terms of life, a fine not to exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000.00) and a term of supervised release of not less than ten (10) years in addition to any term of incarceration, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, §§ 841(b)(1)(A), 846, and 860.

However, for purposes of this plea agreement, the defendant is being held responsible for the possession of at least 3.5 kilograms but less than 5 kilograms of cocaine. Therefore, if the Court accepts this stipulation, the defendant faces a minimum term of imprisonment of five (5) years up to a maximum term of imprisonment of eighty (80) years, a fine not to exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000.00), and a term of supervised release of not less than eight (8) years in addition to any term of incarceration, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, §§ 841(b)(1)(C), 846, and 860.

3. SPECIAL MONETARY ASSESSMENT

Prior to Defendant's change of plea hearing, the Defendant shall pay a special monetary assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count of conviction.

4. ADVISORY NATURE OF THE SENTENCING GUIDELINES

The defendant is aware that pursuant to the decisions issued on January 12, 2005, by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the Sentencing Guidelines are no longer mandatory and must be considered effectively advisory.

5. RULE 11(c)(1)(B) WARNINGS

The defendant is aware that the defendant's sentence is within the sound discretion of the sentencing judge, but the same may be imposed following the United States Sentencing Guidelines, Policy Statements, Application, and Background Notes as advisory to the imposition of sentence. The defendant is aware that the Court has jurisdiction and authority to impose any sentence within the statutory maximum set for the offense to which the defendant pleads guilty. If the Court should impose a sentence up to the maximum established by statute, the defendant cannot, for that reason alone, withdraw a guilty plea, and will remain bound to fulfill all of the obligations under this plea agreement.

6. FINES AND RESTITUTION

The Court may, pursuant to Section 5E1.2(i) of the Sentencing Guidelines, Policy Statements, Application, and Background Notes, order the defendant to pay a fine sufficient to reimburse the government for the costs of any imprisonment and/or supervised release ordered.

Defendant further agrees to provide financial statements as requested by the United States.

7. SENTENCING GUIDELINES CALCULATIONS

Although the Guidelines are now advisory in nature, the sentencing court, in imposing sentence, is required to consider the Guideline "sentencing range established for the applicable category of the offense committed by the defendant." United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005). The United States and Defendant agree to recommend the following Sentencing Guidelines' calculations:

8. CRIMINAL HISTORY CATEGORY

The parties make NO stipulation as to defendant's criminal history. However, the parties stipulate that the defendant's conviction in criminal matter 12-460 (DRD) in the District Court for the District of Puerto Rico is part of the relevant conduct in criminal case number 16-591 (GAG). The parties agree that since 12-460 (DRD) is relevant conduct in the instant case, the sentence of imprisonment shall be imposed pursuant to U.S.S.G. §§ 5G1.3 and/or 5K2.23. The parties further agree that any sentence received for the violation of supervised release conditions in 12-460 (DRD) is not considered to be relevant conduct to the instant case for purposes of U.S.S.G. §§ 5G1.3 and/or 5K2.23.

USA v. Noel Manzano-Cintrón, Criminal No. 16-177 (PAD) & 16-591-12 (GAG)

9. SENTENCE RECOMMENDATION

The parties agree that the defendant and the United States will request a sentence of five (5) years of incarceration as to COUNT TWO in criminal case number 16-177 (PAD), regardless of the defendant's criminal history category. The defendant recognizes that a conviction in Count Two in criminal case number 16-177 (PAD) carries a statutory minimum sentence of five (5) years. The defendant understands that this five (5) year sentence will run consecutive to whatever sentence is imposed in any other criminal matter.

The parties further agree that the defendant and the United States will jointly request a sentence of eighty-four (84) months of imprisonment in criminal case number 16-591 (GAG), regardless of the defendant's criminal history category. The defendant shall not request a sentence below eighty-four (84) months of incarceration, regardless if the presentence report's guideline calculation reflects a lower criminal history category. Any recommendation below eighty-four (84) months would be a substantial and material breach of the plea agreement.

The defendant further agrees that the sentencing recommendation for COUNT ONE in criminal case number 16-591 (GAG) will be consecutive to the sentence imposed in COUNT TWO in criminal case number 16-177 (PAD) for a total sentence of one hundred forty four (144) months of incarceration.

N.M.C.

Plea Agreement
Page 8

The defendant would agree that this sentence recommendation is reasonable pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, §3553(a).

10. WAIVER OF APPEAL

Defendant knowingly and voluntarily agrees that, if the imprisonment sentence imposed by the Court is sixty (60) months or less in COUNT TWO in criminal case number 16-177 (PAD) and a consecutive imprisonment sentence of one hundred twenty one (121) months of imprisonment or less as to COUNT ONE of criminal case number 16-591 (GAG), the defendant waives the right to appeal any aspect of this case's judgment and sentence, including but not limited to the term of imprisonment or probation, restitution, fines, forfeiture, and the term and conditions of supervised release.

11. NO FURTHER ADJUSTMENTS OR DEPARTURES

The United States and the defendant agree that no departures shall be requested by the parties. This Plea Agreement has taken into consideration all Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553 factors. Any recommendation for a term of imprisonment below what has been stipulated in paragraph (9) above will constitute a material breach of the plea agreement.

12. JURISDICTIONAL LIMITS OF PLEA AGREEMENT

It is specifically understood by the defendant, that this plea agreement does not extend to or bind other federal districts, federal civil and/or tax authorities, and/or State or Commonwealth of Puerto Rico tax authorities, civil and/or State or Commonwealth of Puerto Rico law enforcement authorities.

14. RIGHTS SURRENDERED BY DEFENDANT THROUGH GUILTY PLEA

Defendant understands that by entering into this agreement, Defendant surrenders certain rights as provided in this agreement. Defendant understands that the rights of criminal defendants include the following:

a. If the Defendant had persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges, Defendant would have had the right to a speedy jury trial with the assistance of counsel. The trial may be conducted by a judge sitting without a jury if the Defendant, the United States and the judge agree.

b. If a jury trial is conducted, the jury would be composed of twelve lay persons selected at random. The Defendant and the Defendant's attorney would assist in selecting the jurors by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or by removing prospective jurors without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree, unanimously, before it could return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury would be instructed that the Defendant is presumed innocent that it could not convict the Defendant unless, after hearing all the evidence, it was persuaded of the Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and that it was to consider each charge separately.

c. If a trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and, after hearing all the evidence and considering each count separately, determine whether or not the evidence established the Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Plea Agreement

d. At a trial, the United States would be required to present its witnesses and other evidence against the Defendant. The Defendant would be able to confront those witnesses and Defendant's attorney would be able to cross-examine them. In turn, the Defendant could present witnesses and other evidence on Defendant's own behalf. If the witnesses for the Defendant would not appear voluntarily, Defendant could require their attendance through the subpoena power of the Court.

e. At a trial, the Defendant could rely on the privilege against self-incrimination to decline to testify, and no inference of guilty could be drawn from the Defendant's refusal to testify. If the Defendant desired to do so, the Defendant could testify on the Defendant's own behalf.

15. DISMISSAL OF REMAINING COUNTS:

At sentencing, the United States shall request the dismissal of the remaining counts of the Indictment in both criminal case numbers 16-177 (PAD) and 16-591 (GAG).

16. STIPULATED VERSION OF FACTS

The accompanying Stipulated Version of Facts signed by the defendant is hereby incorporated into this plea agreement. Defendant adopts the Version of Facts and agrees that the facts therein are accurate in every respect and that, had the matter proceeded to trial, the United States would have proven those facts beyond a reasonable doubt. Further, the defendant agrees that said statement of facts can be used by the sentencing judge in determining the application of any sentencing guidelines in the instant case.
